Vineyard + Soil

- Corcelettes Estate Vineyard, Upper Bench, Keremeos
“Stemwinder”- alluvial deposit & “Similkameen” gravelly sandy loam.
Gnarly and extremely coarse soils eroded from steep mountain walls.
Situated on the higher, south facing regions of the valley providing an extended growing season. Dry, windswept, and extreme daytime heats.
Exposed rock faces ‘sink’ and radiate heat well into the night. Vineyard rows are North/South orientation, VSP trellis system.

Growing + Crafting

- Meticulous, conditional but always sustainable viticulture and winemaking practices
- Organic practices include use of kelp and seaweed foliar products
- Cover crops, in-row mulching, leaf removal and general canopy management combined with a well implemented integrated pest management program and our dry + windy region, yields a growing environment naturally resilient to disease and pests
- Weather stations, soil moisture probes and a semi-automatic irrigation system allow us to micromanage water needs and as result, water use
- All fruit and vines are hand tended, hand harvested, and hand sorted
- Harvested October 10th
- Low crop tonnage for complete ripe flavors, shaded clusters for preserved tropical notes
- Whole cluster, soft pressing for reduced phenolic extraction
- Pressed to tank and chilled, barreled down to 25% new French oak barrels for ferment post inoculation and ferment start up. Fermented dry and then batonnaged during and post MLF

Tasting + Pairing

Nose:	Delicate floral notes, papaya, citrus + wet stone
Palate:	Creamy, tropical, minerality for days
Finish:	Fresh + long
Overall:	Creamy mouth feel accompanied by fresh acidity + Similkameen minerality
Try with:	Halibut, shellfish, creamy pasta dishes, plain potato chips
